I am trying to customize the scope of the modal displayed when opening the overlay menu. This is the code of my.directive: `.directive('overlay', function() { return { restrict: 'E', replace: true, template: " + '{{overlayTitle}}' + '{{overlayText}}' + " + ", link: function(scope, element, attrs, controls) { var close = function() { element.removeClass('in'); }; scope.overlayTitle = attrs.overlayTitle || 'My title'; scope.overlayText = attrs.overlayText || 'My text'; } }; })` The problem is that I am adding an empty div element that contains the title and text. But I want to remove this space from the menu. How can I remove this space between the title and text
